

Annotated Map of the Civil War: Problem Solving Group Work

Checklist

Your group is responsible for researching and creating an annotated map depicting Texas's role in the Civil War. Complete the following steps in order to assure a successful product. Your teacher must initial each step before continuing to the next part of the assignment.

Step 1: Choose your roles.

Graphic Designer – Design the layout of the map, including an eye-catching title. Help with research process.

Historical Consultant – Guide the research process. Make sure all research questions are answered thoroughly.

Artist – Illustrate each topic with colored pictures and/or symbols. Help with the research process.

Copywriter – Gather all supplies. Help with research process and lettering on map.

NOTE: The map will be completed much more quickly if everyone helps with the lettering.

Step 2: Research Texas's role in the Civil War by completing the Graphically Organized Notes.

Step 3: Create your annotated map.

The map should include a large outline of Texas and the information from the Graphic Organized Notes in concise summary form. Each topic must include an appropriate visual (either a picture or symbol) and should be colored. Don't forget the title!
