

THE PORTAL TO TEXAS HISTORY

Embark on a Voyage of Discovery

<http://texashistory.unt.edu>

Letter from Sam Houston to Charles Sims, August 12, 1838
<http://texashistory.unt.edu/ark:/67531/metaph31164>

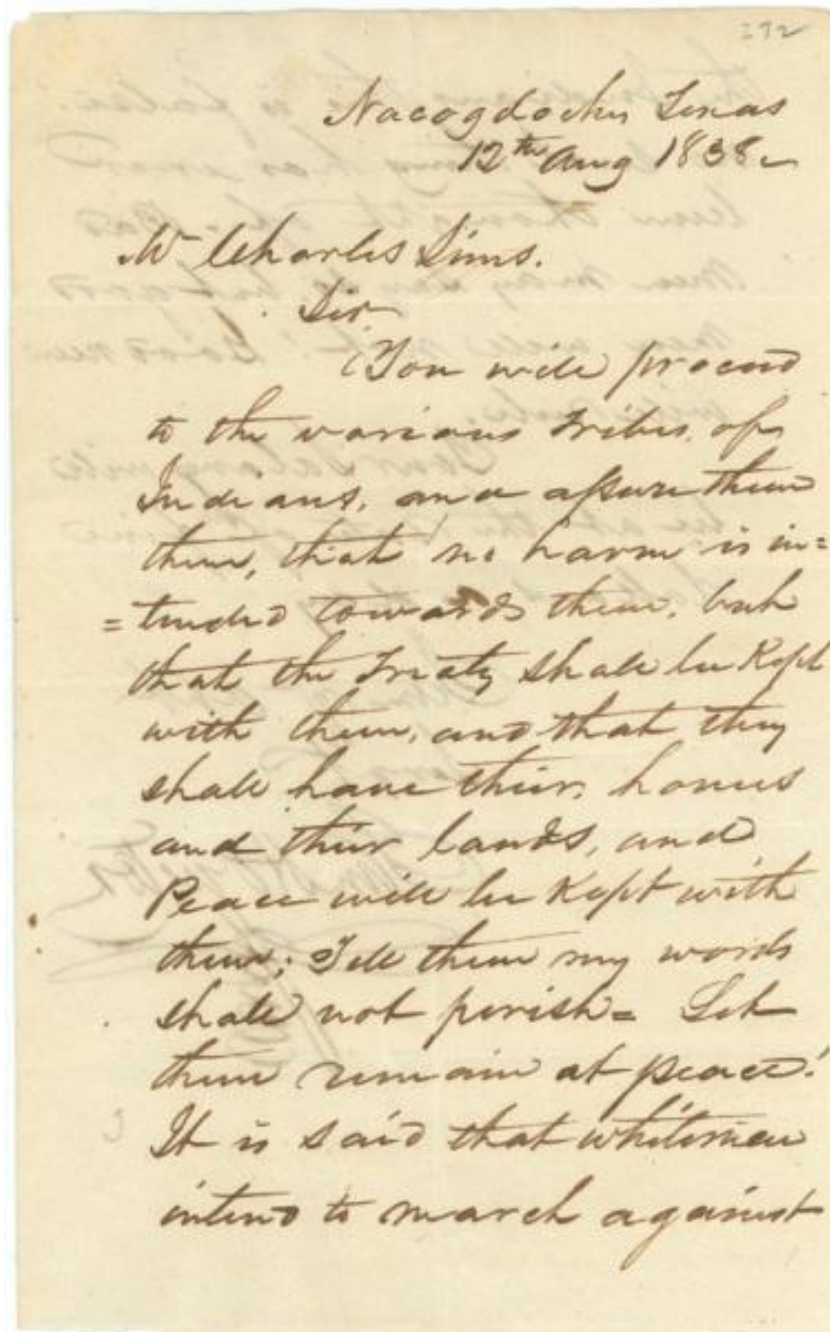

The Portal to Texas History
<http://education.texashistory.unt.edu/>

THE PORTAL TO TEXAS HISTORY

Embark on a Voyage of Discovery

<http://texashistory.unt.edu>

Page 1

272
Nacogdoches Texas
12th Aug 1838

W Charles Sims.
Sir

You will proceed to the various tribes of Indians, and assure them them, that no harm is intended towards them, but that the Treaty shall be kept with them, and that they shall have their homes and their lands, and Peace will be kept with them; Tell them my words shall not perish. Let them remain at peace!
It is said that whitemen
intend to march against

Letter from Sam Houston to Charles Sims, August 12, 1838
<http://texashistory.unt.edu/ark:/67531/metaph31164>

The Portal to Texas History
<http://education.texashistory.unt.edu/>

THE PORTAL TO TEXAS HISTORY

Embark on a Voyage of Discovery

<http://texashistory.unt.edu>

Transcription (pages are transcribed on the Portal)

Pg. 1

Nacogdoches, Texas

12th Aug, 1838

to Charles Sims,

Sir,

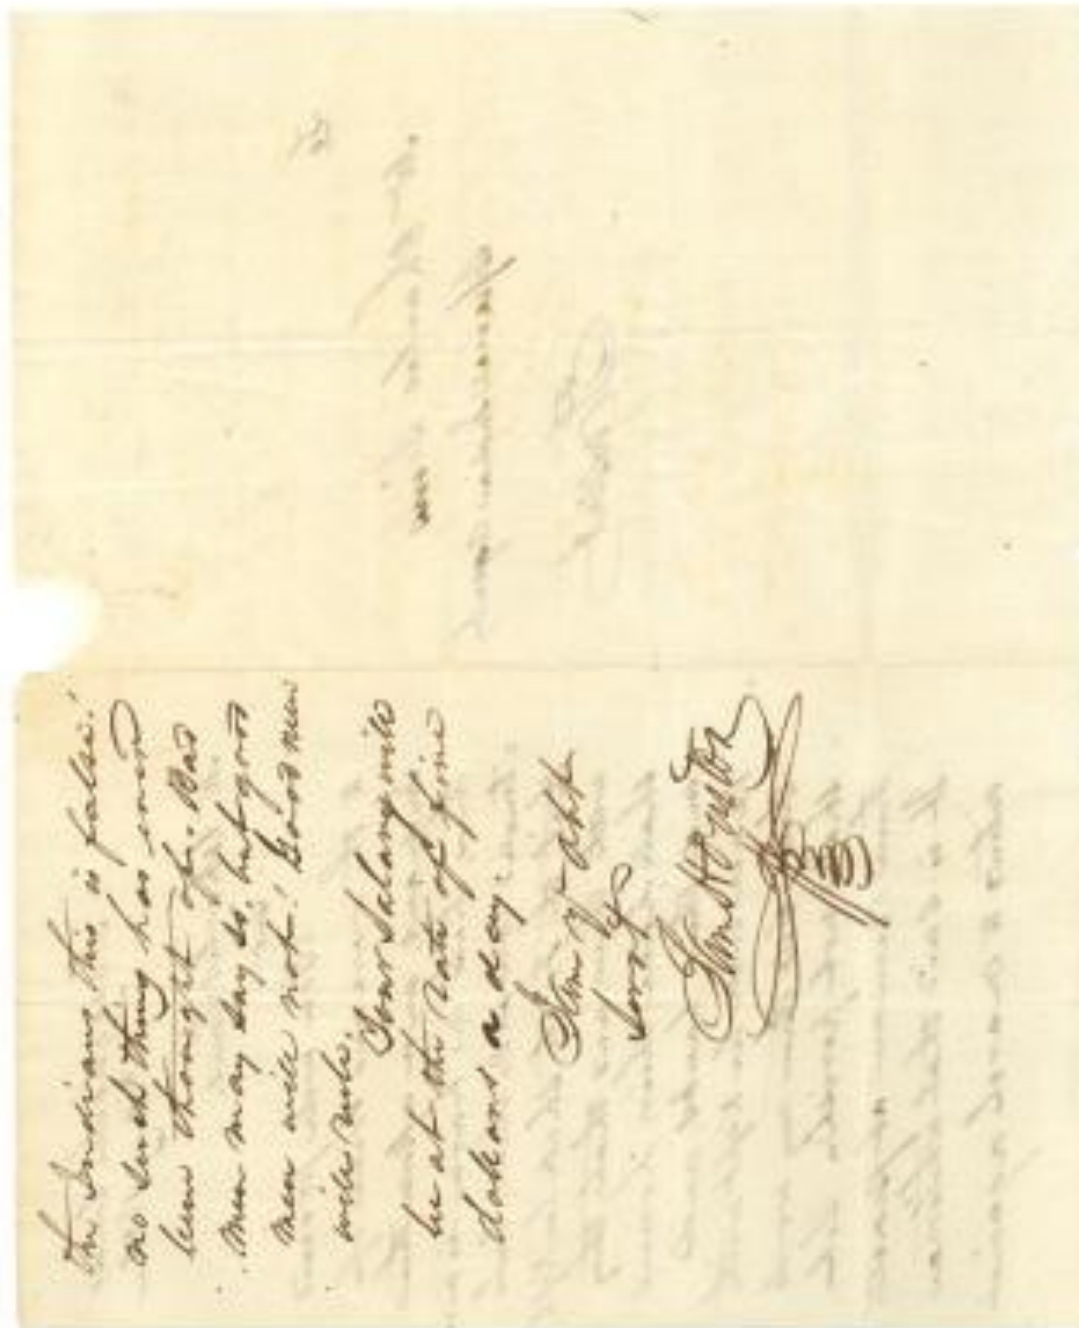

You will proceed to the various Tribes of Indians, and assure them them [sic], that no harm is in=tended towards them, but that the Treaty shall be [...] with them, and that they shall have their homes and their lands, and Peace will be kept with them; Tell them my words shall not perish= Let them remain at peace! It is said that whitemen [sic] intend to march against

THE PORTAL TO TEXAS HISTORY

Embark on a Voyage of Discovery

<http://texashistory.unt.edu>

Page 2

Letter from Sam Houston to Charles Sims, August 12, 1838
<http://texashistory.unt.edu/ark:/67531/metaph31164>

The Portal to Texas History
<http://education.texashistory.unt.edu/>

the Indians this is false! no such thing has even been thought of. Bad men may say so, but good men will not! Good men will [...].

Your Salary will be at the rate of five dollas a day.

I am [...]

Sam Houston.