

Shelby County: The Regulator-Moderator War Seventh Grade Worksheet

1. Why did Charles W. Jackson kill Jo Goodbread?

2. What happened to Charles W. Jackson after his acquittal? _____

3. What happened when the Regulators attempted to arrest Jim Strickland?

4. What was the attitude of the citizens of Crockett County towards Middleton and the Regulators? _____

5. How many guns did Middleton say were to be used against him if a “difficulty” arose?

The PORTAL to TEXAS HISTORY

Embark on a Voyage of Discovery

<http://texashistory.unt.edu>

6. What happened to the McFadgins when they were brought to Shelbyville?

7. What does this say about frontier justice? _____

8. What did President Sam Houston fear might occur because of this conflict?

9. What was the price set for Henry Reynold's life? _____

10. Who did the Moderators swear to kill when they attacked Shelbyville?

11. At the battle for Shelbyville, who did the Regulators use as spies? _____

12. During the fight at Beecham, what did the Regulators do to confuse the Moderators?

13. How many Moderators were killed or wounded during the battle? _____

14. What did Middleton suggest at a meeting of the Regulators? _____

15. Why did Middleton's suggestion worry Sam Houston?

16. How did the War between the Regulators and Moderators end? Write a short paragraph.
